- ✎ Electrical lines are placed at the most convenient location to source, usually in center rear of booth. Should special placement be necessary, a minimum of one hour electrical labor is required and an electrical layout must be provided. Electrical materials, including cables and/or extension cords, necessary to provide electrical service according to layout and/or special placement requests will be invoiced at prevailing rates. Labor and material charges apply to multiple lines with layout, all in-booth connections and lines run under carpet. Indicate on order form or separate layout if electrical is to be placed under carpet.

- ✎ Electrical orders must be specified in terms of amps, volts and watts. To determine electrical requirements, multiply the number of amps by volts per piece of equipment and add these numbers together for total wattage. For example, if total exceeds 2400 watts/120 volts, multiple 120 volt lines are required; 3500 watts requires one 2400 watt service and one 1200 watt service.
- ✎ All equipment must be properly tagged and wired with complete information: type of current, voltage, phase, cycle, horsepower, etc.
- ✎ All electrical equipment must be UL approved and comply with federal, state and local fire and safety codes. Electricians will refuse connections where exhibitor's wiring or equipment constitutes a safety hazard and/or code violation. Motors over ¾ horsepower must have a switch with overload and fuse protection. The I-X Center is not responsible for damage or inconvenience caused by voltage fluctuation or power failure.
- ✎ I-X Center electricians are authorized to cut floor coverings to gain access to utility floor ports, permitting installation of electrical services.
- ✎ Power is turned on one hour before show and turned off one hour after show.
- ✎ Twenty-four hour service is available and requires a minimum 20 amp/120 volt connection.
- ✎ All dedicated computer lines require a minimum 20 amp/120 volt connection.

INTERNET SERVICES FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Will the I-X Center set up my computer for me?

If the I-X Center, or its preferred supplier, furnishes the computers/printers to the exhibitor the I-X Center will configure and set up the computers/printers. If the exhibitor elects to bring his/her own computer equipment, the I-X Center will furnish the configuration information to the exhibitor who will be responsible for doing his/her own configuration. I-X personnel will be available to configure exhibitor supplied computer equipment at the computer/internet technician prevailing rate.

2. May I use my own internet service provider (AOL, iPASS, MSN CompuServe etc.) through modem dial up or ISDN?

No, the I-X Center is the exclusive Internet Service Provider within our facility. There is a distinct advantage to this system. Our Internet service is a high speed, high bandwidth system. However, you may use an ISDN or dial up modem to connect to other services such as your company's network as long as the connection is a direct connection and not through an Internet Service Provider. Radio stations often broadcast from the I-X Center via an ISDN circuit.

3. May I get my IP addresses and other configuration information in advance?

Yes, if you place your order during the Advance Rate period, I-X will email or fax the configuration information to you. If you place your order during the Standard Rate period, the configuration information will be given to you on site when you arrive for move-in. Please understand that our IP addresses are internal only and not directly addressable from outside our facility. If you need an IP address that can be accessed from outside the I-X Center, arrangements must be made with the I-X Center during the Advance Rate period.

4. May I purchase 1 connection with 1 IP address and then use that single IP address to do IP address translation onto multiple computers to access the internet?

Yes, but an Additional Connection/1 IP Address fee applies for each computer that is used to access the internet.
